J V Martin Junior High 1702006

REPORT OF PRINCIPAL AND SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT COUNCIL

The school year 2004-05 was a year of increased commitment to improving test scores of all students at J. V. Martin. A revitalized PTO strengthened parental involvement and conducted several successful projects. The High Performance Partnership with First Citizens continued to be a vital part of J. V. Martin's school program in several areas.

Innovative staff development sessions enabled teachers to develop plans and strategies to address many concerns. Benchmark testing was used in all core curriculum classes and curriculum maps were developed by departments for the entire year. Teachers created collaborative lesson plans with innovative learning strategies.

J. V. Martin students had many accomplishments this year, including producing a yearbook for the first time in several years, competing in PACT-buster activities and various civic events.

Some of our accomplishments were:

First Citizens Bank continued to be a valuable partner with JVM in the High Performance Partnership Program.
